Translation services for global communication

The languages of the world have developed for communication between people. Translation work is not just about knowledge of words and grammar; it is about awareness of cultural differences as well. A true translation conveys the message to the recipient without losing the original content and idea.

Translation professionals with the right tools enable smooth interaction between languages and between cultures.

Translation into almost any language

Translatum Oy is a private Finnish translation agency established in 1996. The company specialises in technical and commercial translation and localisation services, as well as DTP services for clients in Finland and abroad. We currently employ some 40 translation-industry professionals in our offices in Finland, France, and Estonia.

With our in-house translators and global network of partners, we can offer translation services from and into almost any language in the world.

Professional translation and linguistic services

We translate, e.g., technical manuals, newsletters, brochures, Web sites, annual reports, medical documents, various types of computer applications, EU documents, press releases, and legal documents. Our clients include leading companies in their field from many corners of the world.

Our comprehensive service always includes project management, translation in the format requested by the client, the necessary editing, and proofreading by a native speaker of the target language. In addition, we can provide any other linguistic and proofreading services you may need.

Translatum is a member of the Association of Finnish Translation Companies (SKTOL, a member of the EUATC), GALA, milengo (the global alliance of translation agencies), and Finnish Terminology Centre TSK.

We follow the quality assurance principles and ethics guidelines specified by these associations.

Please feel free to contact us for more information about our services. We will be happy to put together a translation package to suit your individual needs.
